

Dear Parents,

I hope you've been enjoying the start of football season! It's always a fun time for the Rouse Band and so great to see what the kids have been working on since the start of summer band. There's lots coming up so here is a quick reference of dates and links to help keep you organized in September. There is no football game on September 17.

- Friday, Sept 10--the band travels to PField for the football game against Weiss. Here is the link to buy your tickets:
