

Chamber Music Night

Choosing Music: Choosing the music was kinda tricky. At first we thought we were going to play Stormy Dance but then realized that it was a duet not a trio. So in the end we ended up playing Composition One otherwise know as Mooney cow.

Rehearsing in our Group: At first when we were rehearsing in our group we kept getting distracted really easily. We weren't making much progress and didn't realize how close the performance really was. Eventually we pulled it together and made lots of progress even if we didn't really get started until the last second... 😊

Playing for the Class: When we played for the class it actually went way better than I thought! Our song sounded pretty nice and we kept together for most of it. After playing in front of the class we had an idea of what we needed to work on more, and it helped immensely.

Performing: I thought the performance was fun and simple. There was no problems finding where to go and once you got there you just waited for your turn and went right on! I thought it was a great little way to do things. Plus it was really pretty out! -Hannah LaMendola 🎵🎵
